ANNEXURE - 26

(CHAPTER VIII, PARA-8.4.2(x))

EXPLANATORY NOTE FOR ALLOTMENT OF SYMBOLS

1. The allotment of symbols has to be made immediately after the expiry of the time fixed for the withdrawal of candidatures. While drawing up a list of contesting candidates a different symbol has to be allotted to each contesting candidate as far as possible in conformity with his choice given in the nomination paper first filed by him. You should proceed to allot the symbols in the following order.

Firstly, you should pick up the candidates set up by National parties and allot to them the symbols reserved for them and no other symbol.

2. Secondly, you should pick up the candidates set up by State parties and allot them the symbols reserved for them. A party may be a State party in one State and not a State party in the State where it contests an election. If such a party sets up a candidate where it is not a State party, he should be allotted the symbol reserved for that party only if so specifically directed by the Commission in respect of your constituency on the fulfilment of the conditions laid down in paragraph 13 of the Symbols Order. In all other cases, the candidates of such party should be treated as candidates of registered un-recognised party.
3. Thirdly, you should take up the allotment of symbols to candidates set up by unrecognized political parties registered with the Commission. You should consult the latest list issued by the Commission. They should be allotted only free symbols according to the choice indicated in the nomination paper first filed.

You should adopt the following procedure for allotment of symbols to candidates set up by registered political parties and independent candidates. If there is only one candidate set up by an unrecognized but registered party, then you should allot the free symbol according to the choice expressed in the nomination paper first filed. If, however, two or more candidates belonging to registered parties ask for the same free symbol then you should draw lots. Then you should proceed to allot symbols to candidates set up by associations or bodies not registered with the Commission and independent candidates not having any party affiliation. If, of the several independent candidates one of them is or was immediately before the election, a sitting member of the House of the People or the legislative Assembly and was allotted a particular free symbol at the previous election when he was chosen as such member, you should allot that free symbol to him. Then you should allot the symbol to the remaining candidates. If more than one candidate has chosen the same symbol as his first choice you should draw lots.

Where election are held simultaneously in a parliamentary and in the Assembly Constituencies comprised in that Parliamentary Constituency and if a symbol is exclusively allotted under the Commission's direction to a candidate set up by a State party at an election in a Parliamentary
