papers that can be delivered by a candidate, Returning Officer should ask the Specified Assistant Returning Officer (who has been authorized by Returning Officer to receive nomination papers) to work in close collaboration with him if he is receiving nomination papers in a different place.

5.10.5. When a number of nomination papers are delivered to Returning Officer he/she must assign serial numbers to them in the order in which he dealt with them one after the other.

5.11. PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION OF NOMINATION PAPERS

5.11.1. As each nomination paper is filed, Returning Officer or the Specified Assistant Returning Officer, as the case may be, is required by law to examine it then and there from the technical standpoint as required under Section 33 (4) of the Act of 1951. But Returning Officer is not required to hold any formal scrutiny of any nomination papers at this stage. This preliminary examination is restricted to entries relating to the name and electoral roll details relating to the candidate and the proposer(s) as given in the nomination paper (s) and those as entered in the electoral roll. The following aspects may be examined at this stage:

- i) If the candidate is an elector in Returning Officer's constituency, he should compare the entries in the nomination paper with the entries in the electoral roll relating to the serial number and name of the candidate and his proposer/s.
- ii) If he comes from another constituency, Returning Officer or the Specified Assistant Returning Officer should compare the entries in the nomination paper with the entry relating to the candidate's name in the electoral roll of the constituency or the relevant part thereof or certified copy of such entry filed by him. The candidate is required by law to produce before Returning Officer or the Specified Assistant Returning Officer such electoral roll or the relevant part thereof or a certified copy of relevant entries thereof [Section 33 (5)].
- iii) Make sure that the electoral roll with which Returning Officer or the Specified Assistant Returning Officer makes such comparison is the one currently in force for the constituency in either case.
- iv) Check whether the affidavit in revised Form 26 is duly filled up and attached along with the nomination paper. If not attached, Returning Officer or the Specified Assistant Returning Officer should bring it to his notice this requirement through a notice by way of the check list.
- v) Check whether all columns of the affidavit are filled up, as incomplete affidavits are liable to be rejected leading to rejection of nomination paper. In case any of the columns are left blank by the candidate, Returning Officer or the Specified Assistant Returning Officer will mention it in the checklist and hand it over to the candidate against proper receipt. In such cases the candidate will have opportunity to file a fresh affidavit complete in all respects by the time fixed for commencement of scrutiny.

5.11.2. In respect of each candidate, Returning Officer or the Specified Assistant Returning Officer should maintain in duplicate, the check list of the documents or requirements to be fulfilled by the candidates. The check list is given below:
